

A Journey to the Land of the Saints

- X • Keep Us in the Nearness of Your Love
- ~ A Liturgy of Memories & Blessings

The members of the community enter and pray in silence. After the community is fully assembled, the prelude should be presented.

Prelude

“The Burial of Saint Brendan”
by Padraig Colum

Nearing death, Brendan knew his body would offer both spiritual and material gifts that some people would try to appropriate for their own benefit. In Padraic Colum’s “The Burial of Saint Brendan,” the saint seeks to ensure that — even in death — he will be able to glorify God for the good of all rather than profit the selfish few.

A period of silent meditation follows the reading before the leader begins the penitential prayers.

Penitential Prayers

A bell rings and the members of the community kneel. If anyone cannot kneel, they should remain seated with their head bowed.

Leader
All

We bend our knees (making the sign of the cross)

in the eye of the Father who created us, in the eye of the Son who purchased us,
in the eye of the Spirit who cleansed us. Amen.

All stand.

Leader

Lord Jesus Christ,
give us the grace of repentance;
give us the grace of earnestness;
give us the grace of submission.

Community

Give us the strength and courage to confess our guilt

Leader	as earnestly as were this the moment of our death.			Community	from every evil and anguish ...
	Lord Jesus, help us speak according to your justice, help us heed your laws and directives. Each day and night, help us know your chastening, so we may act justly toward you and toward others.				... offering a mantle for both our bodies and our souls. Amen.
	Lord Jesus, have mercy on us.				Praise to the Father, praise to the Son, praise to the Spirit.
	Lord Jesus, have mercy on us.				The three in one. (making the sign of the cross) The guarding of the God of life be on you, the guarding of the loving Christ be on you, the guarding of the Holy Spirit be on you, aiding and enfolding you each day and night of your lives.
Community Leader	Christ Jesus, have mercy on us.			Community
	Christ Jesus, have mercy on us.				May God, the three in one, encompass us all, shielding us on sea and on land, in day and in night, guarding each step and each path we travel. Amen.
Community Leader	Lord Jesus, help us know the depths of your love, help us live according to your wisdom. Each day and night, help us know your peace, so we may act humbly toward you and toward others.			Hymn (optional) The members of the community sit or kneel after the service concludes, as they prefer. Silence is observed to allow private prayer or meditation. Individuals should leave quietly as the Spirit moves them.
	Lord Jesus, have mercy on us.
	Lord Jesus Christ, with the Father who created us and the Spirit that cleansed us, Purify our hearts, make holy our souls and confirm our faith, keep safe our minds and compass our bodies all about. Enfold us...
	... and surround us.
Community Leader	Guide our speech...			Community Leader
	... and our thoughts.
Community Leader	Guard us in our sleeping...			Community Leader
	... and in our waking.
Community Leader	Nurture us in our watching...			Community Leader
	... and in our hoping.
Community	Shield us in our lives...			Community
	... and grant us peace in eternity.

Leader	We give you praise with our whole being. Keep us in the nearness of your love.	Leader	Holy God, Father, Son and Spirit, pour down upon us from heaven the rich blessing of your forgiveness.
Community	We give you love with our whole devotion.		Be patient with us and grant to us the fear of God, the love of God, and your affection so we may do your will on earth at all times ...
Leader	Keep us in the nearness of your love.		... as the angels and saints do in heaven.
Community	We give you kneeling with our whole desires.	Community	Holy God,
Leader	Keep us in the nearness of your love.	Leader	Father, Son and Spirit, pour down upon us from heaven the rich blessing of your peace.

Community	Amen.	Leader	Father, Son and Spirit, help us to love and bless your creation, all that we see, all that we hear, all that we touch.
Leader	In the silence of your heart, bring your special needs or concerns before God.		Let us share your peace with our fellow creatures at all times, living as signs of forgiveness and reconciliation on the earth ...
	If you wish us to join in your prayers for these needs, speak them aloud, saying when you are finished, "For this I pray."		... as the angels and saints do in heaven: without malice, without jealousy, without envy, without fear, without terror of anyone under the sun. And may the Father, the Son and the Spirit kindle in our hearts the flame of love to our neighbors, to our foes, to our friends, to our kindred all, to the brave, to the knave, to the thrall.
			The peace of the Father of Joy, the peace of Christ the Lamb, the peace of the Spirit of Grace, be with you.

		Leader	The peace of the Father of Joy, of Christ the Lamb, and of the Spirit of Grace, be with us all.

Members of the community offer their particular prayers. The community's response to these individual petitions is:

	May God's blessing be yours, and well may it befall you.	All
	When these personal prayers are finished, the leader offers the final blessing.
Leader	May the Father, Son and Spirit enfold you on every side, never forsaking or forgetting you, nor letting evil come near you, in each step of the journey before you. God the Father go with you at every pass, Christ our Lord be with you on every hill, The Spirit of Grace guide you across every stream. May the Triune God protect and keep you from every challenge and sorrow, so that in our own hearts, we may feel your presence.

O Holy Spirit, of greatest power, come down upon us and subdue us;
from your glorious mansion in the heavens.
The knee that is stiff, O healer, make pliant,
the heart that is cold, make warm beneath your wing;
guide the soul that is wandering from your path and it shall not die.

Each thing that is foul, may you cleanse, each thing that is hard, may you soften with your grace,
each wound that is causing us pain,
may you make whole.

Now to the Father who created each creature,
now to the Son who paid ransom for his people,
now to the Holy Spirit, comforter of might:
shield and protect us from every wound.

Encompass the beginning and the end of our race,
give us courage to sing in glory,
in peace, in rest, in reconciliation.

Come share in the table of the Lord,
source of love for those who cherish his kindness,
source of solace for those who need his forgiveness,
source of hope for those who fear his judgement.
Come share in the table of the Lord.

Come share in the table of the Lord.

Where no tear shall be shed,
where death comes no more. Amen.

The community shares the Eucharist in silence. Afterward, the table is cleared during the hymn. If there is no hymn, the members of the community use this time for private prayer.

Hymn (optional)

Then, the leader continues the service.

Prayers and Blessings

Leader
Praise to the Father, praise to the Son,

May it be a mantle to our bodies.

A brief silence follows the reading, until the leader begins the psalm.

Leader
Psalms 62, Verses 1 through 12.

For God alone my soul waits in silence;
from him comes my salvation.

He alone is my rock and my salvation,
my fortress; I shall never be shaken.

How long will you assail a person,
will you batter your victim, all of you,
as you would a leaning wall, a tottering

Their only plan is to bring down a person of prominence.
 They take pleasure in falsehood;
they bless with their mouths,
but inwardly they curse.

For God alone my soul waits in silence,
for my hope is from him.

He alone is my rock and my salvation,
my fortress; I shall not be shaken.

On God rests my deliverance and my honor;
my mighty rock, my refuge is in God.

Trust in him at all times, O people;
pour out your heart before him;

God is a refuge for us.

Those of low estate are but a breath,
those of high estate are a delusion;

in the balances they go up;
they are together lighter than a breath.

Put no confidence in extortion,
and set no vain hopes on robbery;

if riches increase, do not set your heart on them.

Once God has spoken;
twice have I heard this:

that power belongs to God,

and steadfast love belongs to you, O Lord.

For you repay to all

according to their work.

There is a brief silence after the psalm before reading or presenting the audio version of the following reflection.

Reflection

“Returning to Clonfert”
by Timothy J. Ray

Afterward, the leader continues the service.

Leader

At the end of any journey, especially a spiritual one, it is important to consider where you have been, what you have done and who you have met during your travels. So, take a moment to reflect on your pilgrimage with Brendan and his companions.

So, let us reflect and pray in silence.

A period of silence is observed for private meditation, with or without music. Afterward, the leader proceeds to the Eucharistic Prayer after the optional hymn.

Hymn (optional)

Eucharistic Prayer

If the community wishes to share the Eucharist, the table is prepared during the hymn. If there is no hymn, the table should be prepared in silence — slowly and deliberately. Then, the leader begins the Eucharistic Prayer.

Leader

Thanks be to you, Holy Father of Glory, father-kind, ever-loving, ever-powerful,
because of all the abundance, favor and deliverance that you bestow on us in our need.

Community

May your name be praised forever, in the heavens above and here on earth.

Leader

Whatever Providence befalls us as your children, in our portion, in our lot, in our path, give to us with it the riches of your hand and the joyous blessing of your mouth.

May your kingdom be seen to flourish through the joy of your people, always grateful.

In the steep common path of our calling,
be it easy or uneasy to our flesh,
be it bright or dark for us to follow,
your perfect guidance will be upon us.

Provide for us in all our needs, material and spiritual, this day and every day.

Be a shield to us from the wiles of the deceiver,
from the arch-destroyer with his arrows pursuing us,
and in each secret thought our minds get to weave,
guide and protect us.

Do not allow us to be tossed about by temptations and protect us from all evils that would do us harm.

O Loving Christ, who was hanged upon a tree,
each day and each night we remember your covenant;
in our lying down and rising up, we yield ourselves to your cross, in our lives and our deaths, we seek in you our peace.
Each day, may we remember the source of the mercies you bestowed on us, gently and generously;
each day, may we become fuller in love with you.

My brothers and sisters, with St. Paul, I say to you:

“I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, ‘This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.’ In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, ‘This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.’ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.”

(1 Corinthians 11: 23-26)

O Gracious God, (making the sign of the cross)

may your Spirit come upon us, and upon this bread and wine, so that it might illumine our understanding, kindle our will,
incite our love, strengthen our weakness, and enfold our desires.

O Generous Lord,
cleanse our hearts, make holy our souls, confirm our faith, keep safe our minds, encompass our bodies about
