The members of the community sit or kneel after the service concludes, as they prefer. Silence is observed to allow private prayer or meditation. Individuals should leave quietly as the Spirit moves them.

A Journey to the Land of the Saints

IX • The Promised Land of Saints & The Return Home

The members of the community enter and pray in silence. After the community is fully assembled, the prelude should be presented.

Prelude

“The Promised Land of the Saints & The Return Home”
(from The Voyage of Saint Brendan, translated by John J. O’Meara)

After leaving the island of Paul the Hermit, Saint Brendan and his companions sail to the south and return to some of the places they had visited before. After celebrating Easter and Pentecost, Saint Brendan and his brothers are guided to the Promised Land of the Saints — and then commanded to return home.

A period of silent meditation follows the reading before the leader begins the penitential prayers.

Penitential Prayers

A bell rings and the members of the community kneel. If anyone cannot kneel, they should remain seated with their head bowed.

In the silence of your heart,
bring your special needs or concerns before God.
If you wish us to join in your prayers for these needs,
speak them aloud, saying when you are finished,
"For this I pray."

Members of the community offer their particular prayers. The community's response to these individual petitions is:

May God's blessing be yours, and well may it befall you.
When these personal prayers are finished, the leader offers the final blessing.

Leader

May God our Creator guard you from hurt and protect you from harm

May Christ our Savior

keep you from ill and bring you to the land of peace in the nearness of his love.

Let us pray for the coming of the Kingdom,
in the words our Lord taught us:

All

“Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come.

Your will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts,

as we also have forgiven our debtors.

And do not bring us to the time of trial, but rescue us from the evil one.”

(Matthew 6: 9-13)

Thanks be to you, Eternal Father,
for you have enwrapped our bodies and our souls,
safeguarding us in the sanctuary of your love ...

... and sheltering us under the mantle of your care.

In our hearts...

pour down upon us from heaven
the rich blessing of your peace.

Peace between nations ...

Peace between kindred ...

... peace between lovers.

Peace between persons injured ...

... peace between foes.

Holy God,

Father, Son and Spirit,

help us to love and bless your creation,

all that we see, all that we hear, all that we touch.

Let us share your peace with our fellow creatures

at all times,

living as signs of forgiveness and reconciliation on the earth ...

All

... as the angels and saints do in heaven:

without malice, without jealousy, without envy,

without fear, without terror of anyone under the sun.

And may the Father, the Son and the Spirit kindle in our hearts the flame of love to our neighbors, to our foes, to our friends, to our kindred all,

to the brave, to the knave, to the thrall.

The peace of the Father of Joy,

the peace of Christ the Lamb,

the peace of the Spirit of Grace, be with you.

The peace of the Father of Joy,
of Christ the Lamb, and of the Spirit of Grace,
be with us all.

Let us share a sign of peace with those present here

A reading from the Gospel according to Saint John.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, “I am going fishing.” They said to him, “We will go with you.” They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, “Children, you have no fish, have you?” They answered him, “No.” He said to them, “Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.” So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.” So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, “Who are you?” because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

The gospel of Jesus Christ, source of strength,
Source of salvation, source of healing grace.
