

A Journey to the Land of the Saints

X • Keep Us in the Nearness of Your Love ~ A Liturgy of Memories & Blessings

The members of the community enter and pray in silence. After the community is fully assembled, the prelude should be presented.

Prelude

“The Burial of Saint Brendan”
by Padraig Colum

Nearing death, Brendan knew his body would offer both spiritual and material gifts that some people would try to appropriate for their own benefit. In Padraic Colum’s “The Burial of Saint Brendan,” the saint seeks to ensure that — even in death — he will be able to glorify God for the good of all rather than profit the selfish few.

A period of silent meditation follows the reading before the leader begins the penitential prayers.

Penitential Prayers

A bell rings and the members of the community kneel. If anyone cannot kneel, they should remain seated with their head bowed.

Leader

We bend our knees

(making the sign of the cross)

in the eye of the Father who created us, in the eye of the Son who purchased us,

in the eye of the Spirit who cleansed us. Amen.

All

All stand.

Leader

Lord Jesus Christ,

give us the grace of repentance;

give us the grace of earnestness;

response to these individual petitions is: May God's blessing be yours, and well may it befall you. When these personal prayers are finished, the leader offers the final blessing.
Leader	May the Father, Son and Spirit enfold you on every side, never forsaking or forgetting you, nor letting evil come near you, in each step of the journey before you. God the Father go with you at every pass, Christ our Lord be with you on every hill, The Spirit of Grace guide you across every stream. May the Triune God protect and keep you from every challenge and sorrow, from every evil and anguish ... ... offering a mantle for both our bodies and our souls. Amen.
Community
Leader	Praise to the Father, praise to the Son, praise to the Spirit. The three in one. (making the sign of the cross) The guarding of the God of life be on you, the guarding of the loving Christ be on you, the guarding of the Holy Spirit be on you, aiding and enfolding you each day and night of your lives.

Hymn (optional)
The members of the community sit or kneel after the service concludes, as they prefer. Silence is observed to allow private prayer or meditation. Individuals should leave quietly as the Spirit moves them.

Community	give us the grace of submission. Give us the strength and courage to confess our guilt as earnestly as were this the moment of our death.
Leader	Lord Jesus, help us speak according to your justice, help us heed your laws and directives. Each day and night, help us know your chastening, so we may act justly toward you and toward others. Lord Jesus, have mercy on us. Lord Jesus, have mercy on us. Christ Jesus, help us count the causes of your mercy, help us praise the features of your goodness. Each day and night, help us know your kindness, so we may act tenderly toward you and toward others. Christ Jesus, have mercy on us. Christ Jesus, have mercy on us. Lord Jesus, help us know the depths of your love, help us live according to your wisdom. Each day and night, help us know your peace, so we may act humbly toward you and toward others. Lord Jesus, have mercy on us. Lord Jesus, have mercy on us. Lord Jesus Christ, with the Father who created us and the Spirit that cleansed us, Purify our hearts, make holy our souls and confirm our faith, keep safe our minds and compass our bodies all about. Enfold us... ... and surround us. Guide our speech... ... and our thoughts. Guard us in our sleeping... ... and in our waking. Nurture us in our watching... ... and in our hoping.

	"For this I pray."		to our foes, to our friends, to our kindred all,
			to the brave, to the knave, to the thrall.
		Leader	The peace of the Father of Joy,
			the peace of Christ the Lamb,

Members of the community offer their particular prayers. The community's the peace of the Spirit of Grace, be with you.

Community

The peace of the Father of Joy, of Christ the Lamb, and of the Spirit of Grace, be with us all.

Let us share a sign of peace with those present here as a testimony to the peace God offers to the world.

Leader

The members of the community share a sign of peace before sitting down. A brief period of silence follows before the reader begins the Word of God.

The Word of God

Reader

I set the teachings of Christ before you;
I set the guarding of God about you.

Community

May it possess us and protect us all.

Reader

A reading from the Gospel according to Saint John.

Jesus said:

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.
As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so where death comes no more. Amen.

The community shares the Eucharist in silence. Afterward, the table is cleared during the hymn. If there is no hymn, the members of the community use this time for private prayer.

Hymn (optional)

Then, the leader continues the service.

Prayers and Blessings

Leader

Praise to the Father, praise to the Son,
praise to the Spirit.

Community

The three in one.

All stand.

Leader

Let us pray for the coming of the Kingdom,
in the words our Lord taught us:

All

"Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come.
Your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And do not bring us to the time of trial, but rescue us from the evil one."

(Matthew 6: 9-13)

Leader

Thanks be to you, Eternal Father, for you have enwrapped our bodies and our souls,
safeguarding us in the sanctuary of your love ...

Community

... and sheltering us under the mantle of your care.

Leader

We give you our whole soul, O God:
our thoughts, our deeds, our words, our will, remembrance of me.' For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes." (1 Corinthians 11: 23-26)

O Gracious God, (making the sign of the cross) may your Spirit come upon us, and upon this bread and wine, so that it might illumine our understanding, kindle our will, incite our love, strengthen our weakness, and enfold our desires.

Community

O Generous Lord,
cleanse our hearts, make holy our souls,
confirm our faith,
keep safe our minds, encompass our bodies about so that in our own hearts, we may feel your presence.

Leader

O Holy Spirit, of greatest power, come down upon us and subdue us;
from your glorious mansion in the heavens.
The knee that is stiff, O healer, make pliant,
the heart that is cold, make warm beneath your wing;
guide the soul that is wandering from your path and it shall not die.

Each thing that is foul, may you cleanse, each thing that is hard, may you soften with your grace,
each wound that is causing us pain,
may you make whole.

Now to the Father who created each creature,
now to the Son who paid ransom for his people, now to the Holy Spirit, comforter of might:
shield and protect us from every wound.

Community

Encompass the beginning and the end of our race, give us courage to sing in glory,
in peace, in rest, in reconciliation.

Leader

Come share in the table of the Lord,
source of love for those who cherish his kindness,
source of solace for those who need his forgiveness,
source of hope for those who fear his judgement.
Come share in the table of the Lord.

Community

Where no tear shall be shed, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

"This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you."

The gospel of Jesus Christ, source of strength,
Source of salvation, source of healing grace.

May it be a mantle to our bodies.

Community

A brief silence follows the reading, until the leader begins the psalm.

Leader
Psalm 62, Verses 1 through 12.

For God alone my soul waits in silence;
from him comes my salvation.

He alone is my rock and my salvation,
my fortress; I shall never be shaken.

How long will you assail a person,

will you batter your victim, all of you,

as you would a leaning wall, a tottering fence?

Their only plan is to bring down a person of prominence.

They take pleasure in falsehood;

they bless with their mouths,

but inwardly they curse.

For God alone my soul waits in silence,

for my hope is from him.

He alone is my rock and my salvation,

my fortress; I shall not be shaken.

On God rests my deliverance and my honor;

my mighty rock, my refuge is in God.

Trust in him at all times, O people;

pour out your heart before him;

God is a refuge for us.

Those of low estate are but a breath,

those of high estate are a delusion;

in the balances they go up;

they are together lighter than a breath.

Put no confidence in extortion,

Community	and set no vain hopes on robbery; if riches increase, do not set your heart on them.	Community	that you bestow on us in our need. May your name be praised forever, in the heavens above and here on earth.
Leader	Once God has spoken; twice have I heard this: that power belongs to God, and steadfast love belongs to you, O Lord.	Leader	Whatever Providence befalls us as your children, in our portion, in our lot, in our path, give to us with it the riches of your hand and the joyous blessing of your mouth.
Community	For you repay to all according to their work.	Community	May your kingdom be seen to flourish through the joy of your people, always grateful.
There is a brief silence after the psalm before reading or presenting the audio version of the following reflection.
Reflection	“Returning to Clonfert” by Timothy J. Ray	Community	In the steep common path of our calling, be it easy or uneasy to our flesh, be it bright or dark for us to follow, your perfect guidance will be upon us.
Afterward, the leader continues the service.
Leader	At the end of any journey, especially a spiritual one, it is important to consider where you have been, what you have done and who you have met during your travels. So, take a moment to reflect on your pilgrimage with Brendan and his companions.	Community	Do not allow us to be tossed about by temptations and protect us from all evils that would do us harm.
So, let us reflect and pray in silence.
A period of silence is observed for private meditation, with or without music. Afterward, the leader proceeds to the Eucharistic Prayer after the optional hymn.
Hymn (optional)
Eucharistic Prayer
If the community wishes to share the Eucharist, the table is prepared during the hymn. If there is no hymn, the table should be prepared in silence — slowly and deliberately. Then, the leader begins the Eucharistic Prayer.
Leader	Thanks be to you, Holy Father of Glory, father-kind, ever-loving, ever-powerful, because of all the abundance, favor and deliverance	Community	O Loving Christ, who was hanged upon a tree, each day and each night we remember your covenant; in our lying down and rising up, we yield ourselves to your cross, in our lives and our deaths, we seek in you our peace. Each day, may we remember the source of the mercies you bestowed on us, gently and generously; each day, may we become fuller in love with you.
My brothers and sisters, with St. Paul, I say to you: “I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, ‘This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.’ In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, ‘This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in
