

A Journey to the Land of the Saints

III • The Island of Sheep & The Leviathan Jasconius

The members of the community enter and pray in silence. After the community is fully assembled, the prelude should be presented.

Prelude

*“The Island of Sheep & The Leviathan Jasconius”
(from The Voyage of Saint Brendan, translated by John J. O’Meara)*

Saint Brendan and his companions set sail again after refreshing themselves on the island with the uninhabited house. Their travels take them to two other islands filled with wonders and surprises.

A period of silent meditation follows the reading before the leader begins the penitential prayers.

The Word of God

Reader

I set the teachings of Christ before you;

Community

I set the guarding of God about you.

May it possess us and protect us all.

Reader

A reading from the Gospel according to Saint John.

There was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

The gospel of Jesus Christ, source of strength,
Source of salvation, source of healing grace.

Praise to the Father, praise to the Son,

All stand.

Leader

Let us pray for the coming of the Kingdom,
in the words our Lord taught us:

All

“Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come.

Your will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts,

as we also have forgiven our debtors.

And do not bring us to the time of trial,

but rescue us from the evil one.”

(Matthew 6: 9-13)

Leader

Thanks be to you, Eternal Father,
for you have enwrapped our bodies and our souls,
safeguarding us in the sanctuary of your love ...

... and sheltering us under the mantle of your care.

O God, bless our homesteads and care for all therein.

Help us also to remember those without home or refuge, especially those displaced by war and poverty.

Community
Leader

May we all find refuge in the fellowship of Christ.

O God, bless our kindred and protect those who are close to us. Help us also to remember those who are may your Spirit come upon us, and upon this bread and wine, so that it might illumine our understanding, kindle our will, incite our love, strengthen our weakness, and enfold our desires.

Community

O Generous Lord,
cleanse our hearts, make holy our souls,
confirm our faith,
keep safe our minds, encompass our bodies about so that in our own hearts, we may feel your presence.

Leader

O Holy Spirit, of greatest power, come down upon us and subdue us;
from your glorious mansion in the heavens.
The knee that is stiff, O healer, make pliant,
the heart that is cold, make warm beneath your wing;
guide the soul that is wandering from your path
and it shall not die.

Each thing that is foul, may you cleanse,
each thing that is hard, may you soften with your grace,
each wound that is causing us pain,
may you make whole.

Now to the Father who created each creature,
now to the Son who paid ransom for his people,
now to the Holy Spirit, comforter of might:
shield and protect us from every wound.

Community

Encompass the beginning and the end of our race, give us courage to sing in glory,
in peace, in rest, in reconciliation.

Leader

Come share in the table of the Lord,
source of love for those who cherish his kindness,
source of solace for those who need his forgiveness,
source of hope for those who fear his judgement.
Come share in the table of the Lord.

Community

Where no tear shall be shed, where death comes no more. Amen.

The community shares the Eucharist in silence. Afterward, the table is cleared during the hymn. If there is no hymn, the members of the community use this time

Leader

The Lord is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?

Community

The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?

Leader

When evildoers assail me to devour my flesh —

Community

my adversaries and foes —
they shall stumble and fall.

Leader

Though an army encamp against me,
my heart shall not fear;

Community

though war rise up against me,
yet I will be confident.

Leader

One thing I asked of the Lord,
that will I seek after:

Community

to live in the house of the Lord
all the days of my life,
to behold the beauty of the Lord,
and to inquire in his temple.

Leader

For he will hide me in his shelter
in the day of trouble;

Community

he will conceal me under the cover of his tent;
he will set me high on a rock.

Leader

Now my head is lifted up
my enemies all around me,
and I will offer in his tent

Community

sacrifices with shouts of joy;
I will sing and make melody to the Lord.

Leader

Hear, O Lord, when I cry aloud,

Community

be gracious to me and answer me!

Leader

“Come,” my heart says, “seek his face!”

Your face, Lord, do I seek.

Community

Do not hide your face from me.

Do not turn your servant away in anger,

you who have been my help.

Leader

Do not cast me off, do not forsake me,
