A Journey to the Land of the Saints

III • The Island of Sheep
& The Leviathan Jasconius

The members of the community enter and pray in silence. After the community is fully assembled, the prelude should be presented.

Prelude

"The Island of Sheep & The Leviathan Jasconius" (from The Voyage of Saint Brendan, translated by John J. O'Meara)

Saint Brendan and his companions set sail again after refreshing themselves on the island with the uninhabited house. Their travels take them to two other islands filled with wonders and surprises.

A period of silent meditation follows the reading before the leader begins the penitential prayers.

Penitential Prayers

A bell rings and the members of the community kneel. If anyone cannot kneel, they should remain seated with their head bowed.

Community	A reading from the Gospel according to Saint John.
Community Leader	May we all find consolation in the fellowship of Christ. O God, shelter us from harm and aid us in life's struggles,	Reader	There was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine.” And Jesus said to her, “Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.” His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.” Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.

Jesus said to them, “Fill the jars with water.” And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, “Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.” So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, “Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.” Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

The gospel of Jesus Christ, source of strength,
Source of salvation, source of healing grace.

May it be a mantle to our bodies.

A brief silence follows the reading, until the leader begins the psalm.

Psalms 27, Verses 1 through 14.

Leader

The Lord is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?

Community

When evildoers assail me to devour my flesh —

Leader

my adversaries and foes —
they shall stumble and fall.

Community

Though an army encamp against me,
my heart shall not fear;

Leader

though war rise up against me,
yet I will be confident.

Community

One thing I asked of the Lord,
that will I seek after:

Leader

to live in the house of the Lord
all the days of my life,
to behold the beauty of the Lord,
and to inquire in his temple.

Community

For he will hide me in his shelter
in the day of trouble;

Leader

he will conceal me under the cover of his tent;
he will set me high on a rock.

Community

Now my head is lifted up
my enemies all around me,

Leader

and I will offer in his tent

Community

sacrifices with shouts of joy;
I will sing and make melody to the Lord.
Hear, O Lord, when I cry aloud,
be gracious to me and answer me!

Leader

“Come,” my heart says, “seek his face!”
Your face, Lord, do I seek.

Community

Do not hide your face from me.

Community

Do not turn your servant away in anger, you who have been my help.

Do not cast me off, do not forsake me,
O God of my salvation!

Leader

If my father and mother forsake me,
the Lord will take me up.

Community

Teach me your way, O Lord,
and lead me on a level path
because of my enemies.

Leader

Do not give me up to the will of my adversaries, for false witnesses have risen against me,
and they are breathing out violence.

Community

I believe that I shall see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

Leader

Wait for the Lord;
be strong, and let your heart take courage,
wait for the Lord!
