

A Journey to the Land of the Saints

IV • The Paradise of Birds

The members of the community enter and pray in silence. After the community is fully assembled, the prelude should be presented.

Prelude

“The Paradise of Birds”

(from The Voyage of Saint Brendan, translated by John J. O’Meara)

Stopping to rest on Easter, Saint Brendan and his companions come ashore on an island called The Paradise of Birds and join its unique community of prayer and praise until Pentecost.

Penitential Prayers

and well may it befall you.

be with us all.

Let us share a sign of peace with those present here

as a testimony to the peace God offers to the world.

The members of the community share a sign of peace before sitting down. A brief period of silence follows before the reader begins the Word of God.

The Word of God

Reader

I set the teachings of Christ before you;
I set the guarding of God about you.

Community

May it possess us and protect us all.

Reader

A reading from the Gospel according to Saint John.

As [Jesus] walked along, he saw a man blind from birth. His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?” Jesus answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned; he was born blind so that God’s works might be revealed in him. We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva and spread the mud on the man’s eyes, saying to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam”. Then he went and washed and came back able to see. The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar began to ask, “Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?” Some were saying, “It is he.” Others were saying, “No, but it is someone like him.” He kept saying, “I am the man.” But they kept asking him, “Then how were your eyes opened?” He answered, “The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ Then I went and washed and received my sight.” They said to him, “Where is he?” He said, “I do not know.”

They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. Then the Pharisees also began to ask him how he had received his sight. He said to them, “He put mud on my eyes. Then I washed, and now I see.” Some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, for he does not observe the sabbath.” But others said, “How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?” And they were divided. So they said again to the blind man, “What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened.” He said, “He is

“Our Father in heaven,

Your kingdom come.
Your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

And do not bring us to the time of trial,
but rescue us from the evil one.”

... and sheltering us under the mantle of your care.
O holy God, be a smooth path before us,

“I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, ‘This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.’ In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, ‘This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.’ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.” (1 Corinthians 11: 23-26)

O Gracious God, (making the sign of the cross)
may your Spirit come upon us, and upon this bread and wine, so that it might illumine our understanding, kindle our will,
incite our love, strengthen our weakness, and enfold our desires.

O Generous Lord,
cleanse our hearts, make holy our souls, confirm our faith,
keep safe our minds, encompass our bodies about
so that in our own hearts, we may feel your presence.

O Holy Spirit, of greatest power,
come down upon us and subdue us;
from your glorious mansion in the heavens.
The knee that is stiff, O healer, make pliant,
the heart that is cold, make warm beneath your wing;
guide the soul that is wandering from your path
and it shall not die.

Each thing that is foul, may you cleanse,
each thing that is hard, may you soften with your grace,
each wound that is causing us pain,
may you make whole.

Now to the Father who created each creature,
now to the Son who paid ransom for his people,
now to the Holy Spirit, comforter of might:
shield and protect us from every wound.

Encompass the beginning and the end of our race,
give us courage to sing in glory,
in peace, in rest, in reconciliation.

Come share in the table of the Lord,
source of love for those who cherish his kindness,
source of solace for those who need his forgiveness,
source of hope for those who fear his judgement.

a prophet.”

The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight and asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?” His parents answered, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; but we do not know how it is that now he sees, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself.” His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that anyone who confessed Jesus to be the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue.

The gospel of Jesus Christ, source of strength,
Source of salvation, source of healing grace.

May it be a mantle to our bodies.

A brief silence follows the reading, until the leader begins the psalm.

Psalms 33, Verses 1 through 22.

Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous.
Praise befits the upright.

Praise the Lord with the lyre;

make melody to him with the harp of ten strings.

Sing to him a new song;
play skillfully on the strings, with loud shouts.

For the word of the Lord is upright,
and all his work is done in faithfulness.

He loves righteousness and justice;

the earth is full of the steadfast love of the Lord.

By the word of the Lord the heavens were made,
and all their host by the breath of his mouth.

He gathered the waters of the sea as in a bottle;

he put the deeps in storehouses.

Let all the earth fear the Lord;

let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

For he spoke, and it came to be;

he commanded, and it stood firm.

Eucharistic Prayer

If the community wishes to share the Eucharist, the table is prepared during the hymn. If there is no hymn, the table should be prepared in silence — slowly and deliberately. Then, the leader begins the Eucharistic Prayer.

Leader	O Loving Christ, who was hanged upon a tree, each day and each night we remember your covenant; in our lying down and rising up, we yield ourselves to your cross, in our lives and our deaths, we seek in you our peace. Each day, may we remember the source of the mercies you bestowed on us, gently and generously; each day, may we become fuller in love with you. My brothers and sisters, with St. Paul, I say to you:
