

A Journey to the Land of the Saints

V • The Community of Ailbe

The members of the community enter and pray in silence. After the community is fully assembled, the prelude should be presented.

Prelude

“The Community of Ailbe”
(from The Voyage of Saint Brendan, translated by John J. O’Meara)

Leaving the Paradise of Birds, Saint Brendan and his companions wander on the ocean for many months before landing on another island where they are welcomed by the Community of Saint Ailbe.

A period of silent meditation follows the reading before the leader begins the penitential prayers.

Penitential Prayers

A bell rings and the members of the community kneel. If anyone cannot kneel, they should remain seated with their head bowed.

Leader
All

We bend our knees (making the sign of the cross) in the eye of the Father who created us, in the eye of the Son who purchased us, in the eye of the Spirit who cleansed us. Amen.

All stand.

Leader

Lord Jesus Christ,
give us the grace of repentance;
give us the grace of earnestness;
give us the grace of submission.
Give us the strength and courage to confess our guilt as earnestly as were this the moment of our death.

Community

Leader

Lord Jesus,
keep the eye of God between us and every other eye;

keep the purpose of God between us and every other purpose;
keep the desire of God between us and every other desire;
and no mouth can curse us.
Lord Jesus, have mercy on us.

Community
Leader

Members of the community offer their particular prayers. The community's response to these individual petitions is:

keep your pain between us and every other pain;
keep your love between us and every other love;
keep your dearness between us and every other dearness;
and no venom can wound us.

Community
Leader
Christ Jesus, have mercy on us.

Leader
May the God of life encompass you, protecting your form and your frame.
May the Christ of love encompass you, shielding you from hatred and from harm.
May the spirit of grace encompass you, guiding you towards goodness and away from ill.
The blessings of the Triune God surround you ...

Community
Leader
Lord Jesus, have mercy on us.
Lord Jesus Christ,
with the Father who created us and the Spirit that cleansed us, Purify our hearts, make holy our souls and confirm our faith, keep safe our minds and compass our bodies all about.
Enfold us...

Community
Leader

... and grant us peace in eternity.
Holy God,
Father, Son and Spirit,

bring your special needs or concerns before God.
If you wish us to join in your prayers for these needs, speak them aloud, saying when you are finished,
"For this I pray."

May God's blessing be yours, and well may it befall you.

When these personal prayers are finished, the leader offers the final blessing.

The members of the community sit or kneel after the service concludes, as they prefer. Silence is observed to allow private prayer or meditation. Individuals should leave quietly as the Spirit moves them.

And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And do not bring us to the time of trial, but rescue us from the evil one.”

(Matthew 6: 9-13)

Thanks be to you, Eternal Father, for you have enwrapped our bodies and our souls, safeguarding us in the sanctuary of your love ...

... and sheltering us under the mantle of your care.
O holy God, be a smooth path before us, a guiding star above us, a keen eye behind us, this day, this night, forever.

We are weary and forlorn, O God,
lead us to your house, to the peace of heaven.

Lead us to your house, to the peace of heaven.
Help us do your will...

... and bridle our own.

Help us give you your due...

... and put aside our entitlement.

Help us travel your path...

... and leave behind our own.

Help us ponder Christ's death...

... and find hope in our own.

Help us meditate on Christ agony...

... and strengthen our love for you.

Help us carry Christ’s cross...

... and forget our own burdens.

Help us embrace repentance...

... and accept your forgiveness.

O holy God,
help us to control our tongues and our thoughts,
so we may trust your wisdom, embrace Christ's redemptive love, and accept the Spirit's gentle graces.

For we are weary and forlorn ...

... and ask you lead us to your house,
to the peace of heaven. Amen.

In the silence of your heart,

pour down upon us from heaven
the rich blessing of your forgiveness.
Be patient with us and grant to us the fear of God, the love of God, and your affection so we may do your will on earth at all times ...

... as the angels and saints do in heaven.

Holy God,
Father, Son and Spirit,

pour down upon us from heaven
the rich blessing of your peace.

Peace between nations ...

... peace between neighbors.

Peace between kindred ...

... peace between lovers.

Peace between persons injured ...

... peace between foes.

Holy God,

Father, Son and Spirit,

help us to love and bless your creation,

all that we see, all that we hear, all that we touch.

Let us share your peace with our fellow creatures at all times, living as signs of forgiveness and reconciliation on the earth ...

... as the angels and saints do in heaven:

without malice, without jealousy, without envy, without fear, without terror of anyone under the sun.

And may the Father, the Son and the Spirit kindle in our hearts the flame of love to our neighbors, to our foes, to our friends, to our kindred all,

to the brave, to the knave, to the thrall.

The peace of the Father of Joy,

the peace of Christ the Lamb,

the peace of the Spirit of Grace, be with you.

The peace of the Father of Joy,

of Christ the Lamb, and of the Spirit of Grace, be with us all.

Let us share a sign of peace with those present here as a testimony to the peace God offers to the world.

The members of the community share a sign of peace before sitting down. A brief period of silence follows before the reader begins the Word of God.

The Word of God

Reader

I set the teachings of Christ before you;
I set the guarding of God about you.

Community

May it possess us and protect us all.

Reader

A reading from the Gospel according to Saint John.

Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, “Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?” He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, “Six months’ wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.” One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said to him, “There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?” Jesus said, “Make the people sit down.” Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, “Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.” so they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, “This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.”

When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The sea became rough now to the Son who paid ransom for his people, now to the Holy Spirit, comforter of might: shield and protect us from every wound.

Community

Encompass the beginning and the end of our race, give us courage to sing in glory, in peace, in rest, in reconciliation.

Leader

Come share in the table of the Lord, source of love for those who cherish his kindness, source of solace for those who need his forgiveness, source of hope for those who fear his judgement. Come share in the table of the Lord.

Community

Where no tear shall be shed, where death comes no more. Amen.

The community shares the Eucharist in silence. Afterward, the table is cleared during the hymn. If there is no hymn, the members of the community use this time for private prayer.

Hymn (optional)

Then, the leader continues the service.

Prayers and Blessings

Leader

Praise to the Father, praise to the Son, praise to the Spirit.

Community

The three in one.

All stand.

Leader

Let us pray for the coming of the Kingdom, in the words our Lord taught us:

All

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come.

Your will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

Community	and justice for all who are oppressed.
Leader	He made known his ways to Moses,
Community	his acts to the people of Israel.
Leader	The Lord is merciful and gracious,
Community	slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
Leader	He will not always accuse,
Community	nor will he keep his anger forever.
Leader	He does not deal with us according to our sins,
Community	nor repay us according to our iniquities.
Leader	For as the heavens are high above the earth,
	so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;
Community	as far as the east is from the west,
	so far he removes our transgressions from us.
Leader	As a father has compassion for his children,
	so the Lord has compassion for those who fear him.
Community	For he knows how we were made;
	he remembers that we are dust.
Leader	As for mortals, their days are like grass;
	they flourish like a flower of the field;
Community	for the wind passes over it, and it is gone,
	and its place knows it no more.
Leader	But the steadfast love of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him,
Community	and his righteousness to children’s children, to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments.
Leader	The Lord has established his throne in the heavens,
Community	and his kingdom rules over all.
Leader	Bless the Lord, O you his angels,
Community	you mighty ones who do his bidding, obedient to his spoken word.
Leader	Bless the Lord, all his hosts,
Community	his ministers that do his will.
Leader	Bless the Lord, all his works,
	in all places of his dominion.
Community	Bless the Lord, O my soul.

There is a brief silence after the psalm before reading or presenting the audio version of the following reflection.

Reflection	“Living as Citizens of Heaven” by Timothy J. Ray
------------	---

A period of silence is observed after the reflection for private meditation, with or without music. Afterward, the leader proceeds to the Eucharistic Prayer after the optional hymn.

Hymn (optional)

Eucharistic Prayer

If the community wishes to share the Eucharist, the table is prepared during the hymn. If there is no hymn, the table should be prepared in silence — slowly and deliberately. Then, the leader begins the Eucharistic Prayer.

Leader	Thanks be to you, Holy Father of Glory, father-kind, ever-loving, ever-powerful, because of all the abundance, favor and deliverance that you bestow on us in our need.
Community	May your name be praised forever, in the heavens above and here on earth.
Leader	Whatever Providence befalls us as your children, in our portion, in our lot, in our path, give to us with it the riches of your hand and the joyous blessing of your mouth. May your kingdom be seen to flourish through the joy of your people, always grateful.
Community	In the steep common path of our calling, be it easy or uneasy to our flesh, be it bright or dark for us to follow, your perfect guidance will be upon us.
Community	Provide for us in all our needs, material and spiritual, this day and every day.
Leader	Be a shield to us from the wiles of the deceiver, from the arch-destroyer with his arrows pursuing us, and in each secret thought our minds get to weave, guide and protect us.
