

Leader

(making the sign of the cross)
The guarding of the God of life be on you,
the guarding of the loving Christ be on you,
the guarding of the Holy Spirit be on you,
aiding and enfolding you each day and night of your lives.
May God, the three in one, encompass us all,
shielding us on sea and on land, in day and in night,
guarding each step and each path we travel. Amen.

Community

Hymn (optional)

The members of the community sit or kneel after the service concludes, as they prefer. Silence is observed to allow private prayer or meditation. Individuals should leave quietly as the Spirit moves them.

A Journey to the Land of the Saints

- X • Keep Us in the Nearness of Your Love
- ~ A Liturgy of Memories & Blessings

The members of the community enter and pray in silence. After the community is fully assembled, the prelude should be presented.

Prelude

“The Burial of Saint Brendan”
by Padraig Colum

Nearing death, Brendan knew his body would offer both spiritual and material gifts that some people would try to appropriate for their own benefit. In Padraic Colum’s “The Burial of Saint Brendan,” the saint seeks to ensure that — even in death — he will be able to glorify God for the good of all rather than profit the selfish few.

A period of silent meditation follows the reading before the leader begins the penitential prayers.

Penitential Prayers

A bell rings and the members of the community kneel. If anyone cannot kneel, they should remain seated with their head bowed.

Leader

All

We bend our knees
(making the sign of the cross)

in the eye of the Father who created us, in the eye of the Son who purchased us,
in the eye of the Spirit who cleansed us. Amen.

All stand.

Leader

Lord Jesus Christ,
give us the grace of repentance;
give us the grace of earnestness;
give us the grace of submission.

Community

Give us the strength and courage to confess our guilt as earnestly as were this the moment of our death.

Leader

Lord Jesus,
help us speak according to your justice,
help us heed your laws and directives.
Each day and night, help us know your chastening,

| Leader | May the Father, Son and Spirit enfold you on every side, never forsaking or forgetting you, nor letting evil come near you, in each step of the journey before you. God the Father go with you at every pass, Christ our Lord be with you on every hill, The Spirit of Grace guide you across every stream. May the Triune God protect and keep you from every challenge and sorrow, from every evil and anguish offering a mantle for both our bodies and our souls. Amen. |

| Reader | I set the teachings of Christ before you; |
| | I set the guarding of God about you. |
| Community | May it possess us and protect us all. |
| Reader | A reading from the Gospel according to Saint John. |

Jesus said:

“I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

“This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you."

The gospel of Jesus Christ, source of strength,
Source of salvation, source of healing grace.

May it be a mantle to our bodies.

A brief silence follows the reading, until the leader begins the psalm.

Psalm 62, Verses 1 through 12.

For God alone my soul waits in silence;
from him comes my salvation.

He alone is my rock and my salvation,
my fortress; I shall never be shaken.

How long will you assail a person,
will you batter your victim, all of you,
as you would a leaning wall, a tottering fence?

Their only plan is to bring down a person of prominence.

They take pleasure in falsehood;

they bless with their mouths,
but inwardly they curse.

For God alone my soul waits in silence,

for my hope is from him.

He alone is my rock and my salvation,

my fortress; I shall not be shaken.
On God rests my deliverance and my honor;
my mighty rock, my refuge is in God.
Trust in him at all times, O people;
pour out your heart before him;
God is a refuge for us.
Those of low estate are but a breath,
those of high estate are a delusion;
in the balances they go up;
they are together lighter than a breath.
Put no confidence in extortion,
and set no vain hopes on robbery;
if riches increase, do not set your heart on them.
Once God has spoken;
twice have I heard this:
that power belongs to God,
and steadfast love belongs to you, O Lord.
For you repay to all
according to their work.

There is a brief silence after the psalm before reading or presenting the audio version of the following reflection.

Reflection
“Returning to Clonfert”
by Timothy J. Ray

Afterward, the leader continues the service.

Leader
At the end of any journey, especially a spiritual one, it is important to consider where you have been, what you have done and who you have met during your travels. So, take a moment to reflect on your pilgrimage with Brendan and his companions.

So, let us reflect and pray in silence.

A period of silence is observed for private meditation, with or without music. Afterward, the leader proceeds to the Prayers and Blessings after the optional hymn.
