

Images and Descriptions

This folder contains images and descriptions of the images and banner intended to be used in an exhibit titled “The Steadfast Cross”.

The images (those adapted by Cat Outram as well as those from the original cross) are prepared sizes in Word and PDF formats which can be resized as desired by your community and printed as display copies of these images. If you want to create your own designs for the display of the images, unformatted versions of the images are provided as JPEGs.

The images of the banner, which may be printed to created in either 3’x10’ or 4’x12’ versions. These files are prepared in inches and pixels which may need to be converted to metric measurements when being prepared for professional printing, either on vinyl or paper.

There are subfolders with the text of these descriptions using either the King James Version or the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. All of these descriptions are prepared in Word AND PDF formats.

All of these materials, both the text and the images contained in this folder are protected under copyright and may only be used for the presentation of the exhibit associated with Dreaming of the Holy Rood.
